

THE LYRIC CONSORT 2010-2011

a premiere a cappella ensemble

✧ FREE CONCERT ✧

To Be Sung on the Water

Sunday Afternoon, 29 August 2010 / 3:00 pm / Craftsman Hall at the Scranton Cultural Center

Be ye one of our "Angel" supporters or a "first-timer," this one's "on the house." Enjoy our "end of summer" program destined for a Labor Day weekend performance at Lake George's Sembrich Museum. Musical and poetic images of summer's lazy beauty blend with works inspired by the coming autumn and sojourners' return home. This is also your one and only chance to hear the first official concert in one of the Scranton Masonic Temple's most beautiful and intimate rooms.

A Lyric Consort Christmas

Saturday Evening, 18 December 2010 / 8:00 pm / St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Scranton

Mystic Medieval poetry is matched to exquisite music in Jean Belmont's 7-movement "Nativitas," introduced by works likewise "both ancient and modern" from Arvo Paert and Trond Kverno. Our program follows with familiar carols of the season and a festive reception around a bowl of warm wassail.

LOST

Saturday Evening, 5 March 2011 / 8:00 pm / St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Scranton

"By the Waters of Babylon, yea we wept..." Sacred and secular depictions of captivity, exile, and separation create a perfect mood for Lenten contemplation...but fear not, our evening ends with uplifting spirituals and musical reflections on love and rescue.

Sacred Voices

Saturday Evening, 21 May 2011 / 8:00 pm / St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Scranton

What music do you select when your entire audience will be professional church musicians? Hear our answer to this challenge as we unveil our program choices for the summer 2011 American Guild of Organists' Eastern Region Conference. An all sacred concert, but one which showcases the greatness and historical variety of music created to advance and intensify worship.
