Lyric Consort will offer “An Acappella Spring Feast”

Concert concludes season’s theme of Four Fabulous Musical Menus

WILKES-BARRE/SCRANTON, PA – The Lyric Consort, northeast Pennsylvania’s critically acclaimed professional vocal ensemble, will present “An Acappella Spring Feast” Friday, May 14 at 8:00 p.m. in the sanctuary of St. Stephen’s Pro-Cathedral, Wilkes-Barre, and again on Sunday, May 16 at 3:00 pm in the sanctuary of St. Luke’s Episcopal Church, Scranton. Presented in the ensemble’s trademark eight-voice acappella style, general admission for the program is $10.00 for adults, with all students offered free admission with presentation of a current school ID.

The program concludes the Consort’s 2009-2010 concert season, based on the theme of “Four Fabulous Musical Feasts.” As explained by the ensemble’s Artistic Director, Alan Baker “a grand meal moves from appetizers through a main course and accompaniments toward desert; we’re trying to follow the same recipe in constructing musical programs filled with a variety of styles and weight.” This program will feature Eric Whitacre’s fanciful choral mini-opera, Leonardo Dreams of his Flying Machine, as well as music of Samuel Barber, native Scranton son Richard Wargo, American folk songs, and a variety of world “Invitations to the Dance.”

Formed in 1993, to explore the myriad riches of the world’s acappella traditions, The Lyric Consort maintains annual concert series in both Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, and has performed throughout the northeast United States, including recent appearances with the NEPA Philharmonic and the Four Nations Ensemble at New York’s Metropolitan Museum of Art. The ensemble's early success with Medieval and Renaissance repertoires has been increasingly balanced by similar success with contemporary vocal works, and the ensemble now regularly premieres new works from the region's finest composers and arrangers, and has produced four compact disc recordings and a celebrated concert video recording for WVIA public television.

Members of The Lyric Consort include; Dr. Alan Baker, artistic director/tenor; Susan Kelly, soprano; Lisa Cardoni, alto; Francis McMullen, bass; Christopher Gallo, bass; Carol McMullen, alto; Dr. Steven Thomas, tenor; and Leslie Mason Moran, soprano.

This program is generously supported by The Pennsylvania Partners in the Arts, a joint effort of the PA Council on the Arts and the Scranton Area Foundation; and by a Lackawanna County Arts and Cultural Grant, a program of the Lackawanna County Commissioners and the Lackawanna County Council on Art, Culture and Education.
